PAWZ & PURRZ ANIMAL RESCUE

THE LITTLE RESCUE THAT COULD

Because of You

Since starting in December of 2016, PPAR has taken in 148 dogs and has had 101 adoptions. We have also taken in over 180 cats and have adopted out 115. We certainly cannot forget the two rabbits and two guinea pigs that were in our care and have found forever homes. These numbers change on a daily basis due to adoptions and intakes.

Among these, we've had dogs with severe skins issues, one heartworm positive, another with a congenital heart defect, some deaf, blind, missing an eye and several emergency trips to Cornell. Kittens with severe eye infections, feline leukemia, one hermaphrodite and six litters of bottle babies.

We've taken in animals that we knew had very limited time left. Many tears have been shed over animals we just met. We've held, cried and helped some over the rainbow bridge, but in the end we would not change a thing.

MANY TEARS HAVE BEEN SHED OVER ANIMALS WE'VE JUST MET.

It has become quite common to receive emergency phone calls and make late night runs to help an animal in need.

Throughout all of this, we have met some wonderful people in our community, have had the pleasure of working with and building relationships with other rescues in the area, not to mention the fabulous vets that work with us, and of course we cannot forget to mention the wonderful groomers!

Without all of you, this could not be possible. It is only because of you and your support that we have been able to help so many animals in need. We cannot say "thank you" enough to everyone who supports us and our mission.

We look forward to what the future holds for us. Remember... we are ALWAYS in need of foster homes for dogs and cats. Without foster homes, we would not be able to help all these animals in need.

Foster Highlight

Did you say "bottle babies"?

What can we say about Kierstyn? She is always there at a moment's notice. She not only fostered one set of bottle babies, but two! As the first litter of four left, in came a litter of seven!

Kierstyn who runs a daycare, lost hours of sleep bottle feeding these babies around the clock, but never missed a beat taking care of the children in her care too.

Kierstyn also raised funds for our heartworm dog, Bones. Having a heartworm positive dog herself, she knew the expense involved and wanted to help. Kierstyn actually raised enough money to cover the entire cost of Bones' treatment!

We want to also acknowledge her fiancé, Derrik, for his role and their daughter, a true animal lover and future PPAR Board Member!

ADOPTION SPOTLIGHT

Conway, now known as Connor, was part of a hoarding situation. Upon intake, Connor was taken to Agape where he was given a thorough exam, rabies and was heartworm/Lyme tested. Next stop... to the groomer!

Trish Costa, owner of Paws Fur a Groom says....

"I had the pleasure of adopting, quite by accident, a senior dog from Pawz & Purrrz. I had met a dog by the name of Conway when I was asked to groomed him. Much to my surprise and pleasure, after Conway's transformation he seemed to decide that I was his new best friend and followed me everywhere. When Conway walked out my door, I burst into tears. Needless to say, I called them the very next morning.

I had already thought that this group was pretty awesome because they cared enough to love these animals and give them time to decompress before throwing them into another situation that could be stressful to them, such as grooming. PPAR was very honest and said that Conway had a couple of issues that needed to be addressed before he could be adopted. After two vet visits he was ready to come home. He is now known as Connor and I am just thrilled to have him as my new son. I wish everyone who is thinking of adopting could work with PPAR".

YUKON

As many of you might recall the little kitten who traveled to Buffalo and back in the wheel well of a Yukon. Of course we had to name him after the vehicle he hitched a ride in.

Yukon was taken immediately to Rio Vista to be examined where it was found he had an Injury to the tip of his tail, tiny cuts on his hind legs, a bit of a gash on his face, ear mites, and slightly dehydrated. All things considered, he was going to be just fine.

Yukon's adopter says.... "When I read Yukon's story, I knew I had to add him to my family. I had adopted four cats prior to him and just knew he would fit right in. He is cuddly and likes to nuzzle into your neck and will sit on your lap for hours. I don't know what I would do without my "children". Whomever thinks pet therapy doesn't work, I'm a prime example that it does".

Foster/Volunteer Highlight

Molly Lowery has been involved with rescue for several years. She has been a foster for Pawz and Purrrz since the beginning. Molly has fostered multiple litters of kittens and many adults. She has trapped feral and stray cats at her work place, providing them with a chance at a happy life and reducing a big problem for a local company. Molly has learned to care for bottle babies, give vaccinations, administer a variety of medications and provide for the social and security needs of fearful, injured and sick cats and kittens.

Molly has worked hard to raise funds to cover the veterinary costs of PPAR cats and kittens. She has solicited funds through Facebook and sold personal items online with all proceeds going to help cover vet expenses. She has set up fundraisers at Iron Flamingo, Cap'n Morgan's and Texas Roadhouse. She has spent a great deal of time investigating many other possibilities.

Pawz and Purrrz would like to take this opportunity to thank Molly for her selfless contributions and to let her know how valuable and appreciated she is.

We would like to thank everyone who voted for PPAR. We appreciate all your support.
